

Sara Eckhoff is a dedicated and passionate advocate with a background in domestic and sexual violence advocacy at both the individual and systemic levels. Her work is fueled by the dream of a world free from all forms of violence and oppression. She received her Bachelor of Arts in History from the University of Rhode Island in 2009 and her Master of Arts in Holocaust and Genocide Studies from West Chester University of Pennsylvania in 2015. Throughout her personal and professional life, Sara has come to know many survivors who have shown incredible strength, courage, and resilience in the face of seemingly insurmountable barriers; it is this spirit that she hopes to carry with her through every step of her journey with Haven Box.

Sara is a daughter, sister, aunt, niece, cousin, partner, and friend. She was born in California and raised in Providence, where she currently resides with her beloved pets—a cat named Sugar and a Box Turtle named Shelby. Most of her weekends are spent in Connecticut with her partner and step-dog, Roxie. An artist at heart, Sara finds joy in creating mosaics, painting, collaging, and doodling. She is a lover of plants, pizza, thrifting, fat liberation, the moon, summer days spent by the water, cats, flowers, iced lattes, and finding art in unexpected places.
